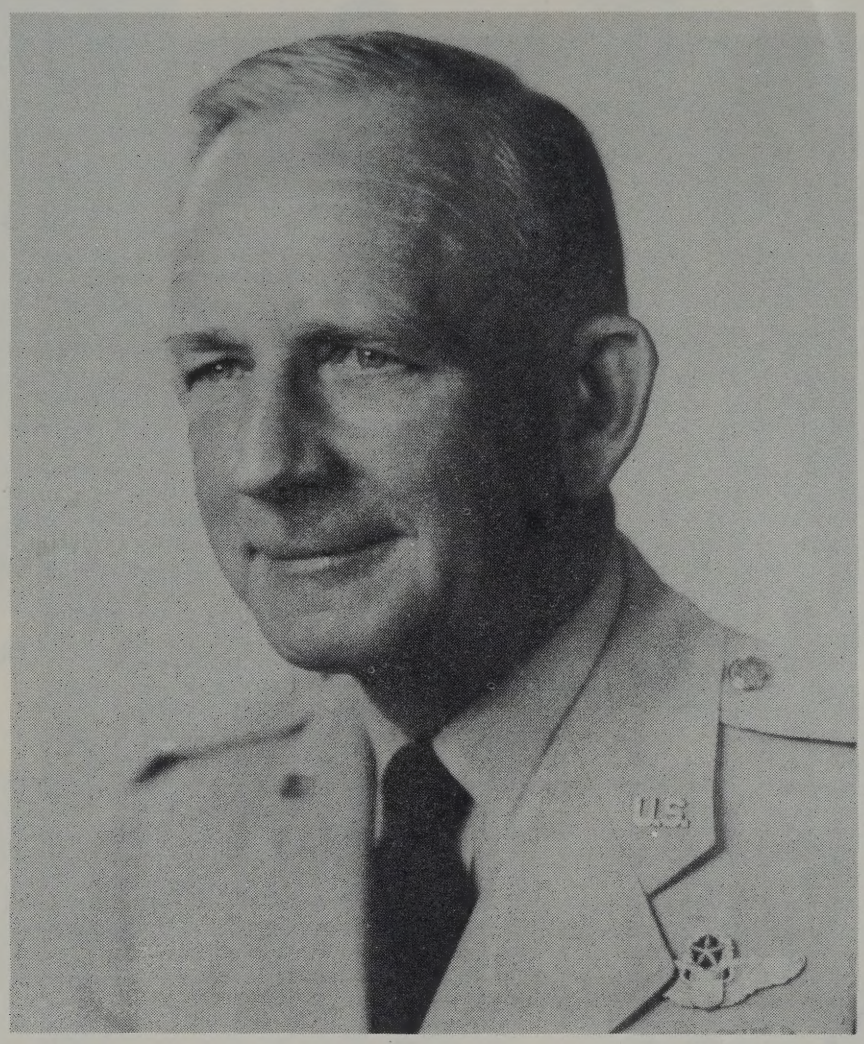
U.S. AIR FORCE



COLONEL JASPER N. BELL
Commander

We here at James Connally AFB actively sought the assignment of a Summer Training Unit of the Air Force Reserve Officers Training Corps to this base. We did this because our basic mission of training young officers in navigation and instrument instructor flying not only fitted us for the mission, but made us aware of the importance of AFROTC. A preponderence of our officer students are a product of the ROTC. The future of our country and the USAF is dependent on the young men we train today.

Your training here has been rigorous and relentless. We feel that each part of the training program served a useful purpose. I hope that you have been discerning enough to understand the demands we have placed on you, and, as a result, that each of you has become a better man. You have been challenged in many ways, and almost without exception you have measured up to these challenges. The knowledge you have gained here will greatly influence your lives as Cadets and Officers. We sincerely feel that this has been a positive influence and it will enable you to be a more effective leader in the future.

My congratulations to each of you upon the successful completion of this STU. May you have a successful future in the Air Force.

JASPER N. BELL
Colonel, USAF
Commander

LIEUTENANT COLONEL PHILIP B. TALBOT
STU Commander

To the Cadets of the 1962 AFROTC Summer Training Unit

Since the AFROTC mission is of vital importance to our officer procurement program, I am proud to have participated in its training program. I know that the entire Summer Training Unit staff is equally happy to have been involved in this important phase of your officer training.

During the next few years this country will rely heavily upon young men such as you to carry its defense burden. I am confident from what I have observed of your activities that, upon commissioning, you will accomplish your assigned missions cheerfully and effectively.

To each of you I extend my sincere thanks for your hard work and my best wishes for success and happiness in your future career as officers of the United States Air Force.
